

Council Strategic Directions Revisions Adopted
September 26, 2023

Overview

The Council on Linkages Between Academia and Public Health Practice: Strategic Directions defines the priorities of the Council on Linkages Between Academia and Public Health Practice (Council). Council staff proposed revisions to the Strategic Directions to reflect the current activities and priorities of the Council. These proposed revisions were presented during the June 23rd Council meeting. Following the June Council meeting, there was an open comment period from June 23rd through July 31st. Feedback from the open comment period was incorporated and the Council on Linkages Between Academia and Public Health Practice: Strategic Directions, 2023-2027 was put to a vote on September 5, 2023. The vote was conducted via email with the majority of members voting in support of the revisions. No votes were received in opposition to the revisions.

During the meeting, Council Chair Bill Keck will announce the successful adoption of the Council on Linkages Between Academia and Public Health Practice: Strategic Directions, 2023-2027, and open the meeting to discussion and questions about the revision and ongoing activities of the Council.
